

I would like to see the WI No Call List and Federal No Call List strengthened by banning those annoying automated political phone calls which we received dozens of during the last election.